THE CONNECTIONS NEWSLETTER

To give everyone enough time to read Connections before the weekend starts, we email it to you on Thursdays. The deadline for submitting articles for Connections is 9:00 a.m. on Tuesdays.

Tuesday, February 25 at 9:00 a.m. is the deadline for the next issue of Connections. Thank you.

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Friends in Christ,

I'm praying that the snow will be gone for a while. I am told this coming weekend will be like a heat wave, with temperatures rising to 40 degrees. I want us to be back in church for Sunday worship. I look forward to seeing all of you in the sanctuary. I miss your smiling faces.

This Sunday promises to be filled with wonderful things. I will be preaching on Luke 6:27-38, and the sermon title is "Love Your Enemies." This message is perfectly timed for this week's celebration of Black History Month. I will speak on behalf of a remarkable American—author, professor, and religious civil rights leader, Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.—specifically discussing his letter from Birmingham Jail, which he wrote while incarcerated on Good Friday, April 16, 1963, over the course of eight days. I hope you can join us for this event.

Additionally, this Sunday at 4:00 p.m., our Greater Hartford Cooperative Parish Black History Month Celebration will be held at the North United Methodist Church in Hartford, CT. I hope you'll join us for a fantastic event featuring live music, singing, sacred dance performances, and inspiring preaching by Rev. Jacqueline Carter from the Union United Methodist Church. Refreshments will be served after the service.

Regarding our New Members class, it will begin this Sunday in the Fireside Room at noon. Anyone interested in learning more about our church or considering joining us is welcome to join. I look forward to discussing our church and our mission with you. However, due to snow cancellations from the sanctuary over the past two weeks, we will be rescheduling the final communion study group for a later date.

Please check the calendar page to see what else is coming up that you might want to join.

Remember God loves you and so do I. And, there is nothing you can do about it.

God Bless you all, Pastor Marion

WORDLY WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

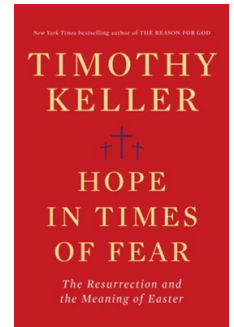

'Word'ly Women's Next Bible Study:

Hope in Times of Fear: The Resurrection and the Meaning of Easter, by Timothy Keller

The Resurrection accounts of Jesus in the Gospels are the most dramatic and impactful stories ever told. One similarity unites each testimony—that none of his most loyal and steadfast followers could "see" it was him, back from the dead. The reason for this is at the very foundation of the Christian faith.

She turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not realize that it was Jesus. (John 20:14)

Hope in the Time of Fear is a book that unlocks the meaning of Jesus's resurrection for readers. Easter is considered the most solemn and important holiday for Christians. It is a time of spiritual rebirth and a time of celebrating the physical rebirth of Jesus after three days in the tomb. For his devoted followers, nothing could prepare them for the moment they met the resurrected Jesus. Each failed to recognize him. All of them physically saw him and yet did not spiritually truly see him. It was only when Jesus reached out and invited them to see who he truly was that their eyes were open. Here the central message of the Christian faith is revealed in a way only Timothy Keller could do it—filled with unshakable belief, piercing insight, and a profound new way to look at a story you think you know. After reading this book, the true meaning of Easter will no longer be unseen

All women of the church are invited to join the 'Word'ly Women's next Bible Study. This is a six-week book study. Each week we will gather to discuss a section of the book. We will meet on six Mondays (starting on March 3, 2025 through April 7, 2025). There is a Morning Class from 9:30 - 11:00 a.m. and an Evening Class from 6:30 - 8:00 p.m. The classes are held in the Fireside Room. The sign-up sheet is posted on the Community Connections Board. Please, purchase the book for this study and read the introduction and the first 2 chapters before the first class (the book is available on Amazon.com). Whether you are new to Bible study or a longtime student of the Word come join us for this Lenten study!

GIFTS FOR LOAVES AND FISHES IN HARTFORD

Gifts of Socks and Toiletries Are Being Collected for Loaves and Fishes in Hartford

The Creative Pastimes/Prayer Shawl knitters have been making hats and scarves all year to give to Loaves and Fishes of Hartford. This independent, non-profit, located near St. Francis Hospital, serves over 35,000 hot meals annually and provides take-home sandwiches and lunch bags. Related services such as job training and a sewing program move clients beyond the crisis intervention of food support. Single mothers and families are often served. WUMC first brought hats to Loaves and Fishes in 1992. For many years the congregation has partnered with the hat makers by donating warm weather socks and toiletries.

This year, the Christmas trees in the narthex and Family Life Center hallway have been left up to display the hats. There is a box near each tree for your socks and toiletries gifts. Sharon Richwine delivers everything in mid-February. Anyone interested in going with her to display the hats, socks, and toiletries at Loaves and Fishes is welcome to join her. The clients are grateful and enjoy interacting and selecting what they could use. Call Grace Hayes about learning to make our hats or for knitting supplies to make them independently.

Summer 2025 will be here before you know it...

For anyone interested in participating in UM Army 2025 — youth who have completed 6th grade and the young at heart — we need you to be part of the WUMC team! We need participants of all ages - for every 5 youth we bring, we need 2 adults. Our team is registered for the week of Sunday, July 13 to Saturday, July 19 and we will be somewhere in Connecticut. The cost is $325 per person and scholarships will be available for those that need it. Please consider coming — you won't regret it. If you have any questions or want to secure a spot, please reach out to Judy Dowd.

COUNTERS NEEDED

Subject: Counters Needed

Gerry Hayes has generously served as our primary Counter (to count our Sunday church offerings after church), and a few others have helped count for a particular month. In fairness to Gerry and to have more people with this expertise, I'm asking for volunteers to contact me (either by email or phone) to sign up to do a month or two of counting during 2025. Gerry will provide the needed training to all new volunteers. Thank you.

Congregational Covenant Wethersfield UMC 2022

We covenant together to create a community that supports one another, celebrates one another, and recognizes that each of us seeks to find in the body of Christ a place of safety, affirmation, and joy. Our communication will be guided by the biblical admonition to “speak the truth in love” (Ephesians 4:15), which means that we will express our convictions and feelings honestly, but also with sensitivity to the concerns of others.

We recognize that God calls us to different ministries and commitments. We will respect and support our church staff and all who accept office or commit themselves to the service of this church. When conflict or disagreement arises, we will address each other directly. We will speak with people, not about people. If direct conversation does not resolve a conflict, we will seek God’s guidance and appropriate help whenever we find our own wisdom inadequate. We may not always come to an agreement, but we will respect the decision of the majority and strive to maintain unity in the spirit of Christian Love.

We covenant to pray together to sustain and deepen our love relationship with God, whom we cannot love without loving one another (John 13:34-35, 1 John 4:20-21). We affirm this covenant, trusting in God’s power to enable us to live it with courage, love, and compassion.

God be with you all,

Pastor Marion
